

Coin presentation.

Sgt. Maj. Terry Grezlik, the 4th Infantry Division's acting command sergeant major, presents FOX News personality Brian Kilmeade with the Command Sergeants Major coin to show the 4th Inf. Div.'s appreciation for his support of servicemen and women and their families. "During our last deployment for Operation Iraqi Freedom 05-07, we would watch his morning program 'Fox and Friends' before the commanders update briefing," said Grezlik. "It was a positive force for us, for the 4th Inf. Div. and for the 1st Cavalry Division. We felt that we kind of lived with them." The coin was presented June 1 at the Clear Creek Post Exchange during a book-signing opportunity.
